On November 14, 2011 the City of Newport's Enterprise Funds Program kicked off its 2012 Resident Parking Sticker and Beach Parking Sticker Drawing Contests. With close to 25 entries from Newport's "younger" residents selecting the winners was a challenge.

The Enterprise Funds Program announced today that Kayla Fleming, age 10, a fourth grade student at Coggeshall Elementary School in Newport, has won 1st Place in the 2012 Resident Parking Sticker Drawing Contest, and Benjamin Adams, a home schooled fourth grader from Newport has won 1st Place in the 2012 Easton's Beach Parking Sticker Drawing Contest.

The theme for the 2012 Resident Parking Sticker Contest was your "Favorite Newport Harbor Scene" and Ms. Fleming's drawing of a stunning sunset in Newport Harbor will be featured on 17,000 stickers, which the City will issue to Newport residents on or about March 1st. The theme for the 2012 Easton's Beach Parking Sticker Contest was to draw your "Favorite Newport Beach Scene". Mr. Adams' calming beach scene won him 1st Place and his drawing will be featured on approximately 2,500, Easton's Beach Parking Stickers for the 2012 season.

In addition to having their drawings on the respective 2012 City stickers, Mr. Adams and Ms. Fleming will also receive an Easton's Beach Tote Bag package, a Beach Bounce party for up to 25 of their friends & family , and 10 carousel rides. The top 3 drawings in each category will have their drawings framed and displayed in the Easton's Beach carousel building.

The winners and runners up will be recognized by the Newport City Council at their meeting on January 25, 2012.
